

What will we produce?

- Collection of case studies focussing on how schools/VET centres interact with the business community , particularly where this engagement has had an influence over or on curriculum development
- Case study report findings
- Impact report - a critical analysis of the successful practice identified in the case studies
- Curriculum testing on vocational students by two members of the network.
- Training needs analysis
- Employer-led VET curriculum model with implementation guidelines and standards
- Recommendations for policy makers
